About the Keynote Speaker:

Dani Douglas, Research & Policy Associate, Center on Rural Innovation (CORI).

Dani Douglas is the Research and Policy Associate at the Center on Rural Innovation (CORI), a national nonprofit that partners with rural leaders across the country to build tech economies that support scalable entrepreneurship and lead to more tech jobs in rural America. In her role on the research and data team, Dani uses qualitative research and policy analysis to better understand the diverse experiences of rural economic development. She holds an M.A. from The Fletcher School at Tufts University and a B.A. from the University of Rochester.
